

NATIONAL HISTORIC PRESERVATION MONTH PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The National Trust for Historic Preservation established May as Historic Preservation Month in 1973, to promote historic places for the purpose of instilling nation and community pride, promoting heritage tourism, and showing the social and economic benefits of historic preservation; and

WHEREAS, The City of Blanco has long realized the value of good stewardship for its rich historic heritage and the theme for National Historic Preservation Month; and

WHEREAS, Blanco is invested with its historic homes and buildings, natural rock fences, the Blanco River, windmills, hand-dug water wells, and the Texas Hill Country, as found around the City; and

WHEREAS, Blanco's historic markers found within the city limits. Plus, In the National Register Districts, known as the "Square" as our local Historic Preservation District it matters to our citizens and visitors; and

WHEREAS, it is important to celebrate the City's natural, built environments, and the contributions made by dedicated citizens in preserving these surroundings, which gives the community its unique sense of place and identity; and

WHEREAS, the City of Blanco supports and joins in this as "The National Historic Preservation Month." Blanco's citizens are called upon to take the following actions:

- ❖ WALK our Bindseil City Park with its trail with family members and friends. Look out within the city: the windmills, dark night starry nights, wide spaces, rock fences, rock water cisterns in by early settlers-found to be well-suited to our environment, and at the historic homes, downtown historic buildings, and the banks of the Blanco River to experience and learn more about the community they live in.
- ❖ APPRECIATE our historic sites, the clean crisp country air, and the people who work to preserve them, so they are here for us all to experience and enjoy.
- ❖ SHOP at every single retail store and have dinner with your close family members and friends at the City's Square.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Rachel Lumpee, Mayor of the City of Blanco do proclaim May 2023 as National Historic Preservation Month and call upon the citizens of Blanco to join their fellow citizens across the United States in recognizing and participating in this special observance.

Proclamation adopted by the City of Blanco on this 11 day of April 2023.

Rachel Lumpee, Mayor

ATTEST:

Laurie Cassidy, City Secretary
