

Attention City of Blanco water users: Due to distribution challenges within our water supply company, we are officially announcing the highest level of immediate water emergency conditions - Stage 6. Please stop all unnecessary water usage until further notice. This includes immediately stopping all outdoor usage (except for giving drinking water to livestock animals). We have already stopped all industrial usage. We will keep you up to date as the situation develops.